Schedule your Session:

We will you book the perfect time of year, time of day, and day of the week for a successful session.

Viewing your images:

Once your proofs are ready, we will call you to let you know! You will be able to view your photos online on our online gallery. Or you would love to meet with you to go over your session with you.

Viewing your images online:

Your proofs will be ready one week after the date of your session by the end of the day. You can view them online by going to tristonsphotography.com and clicking on "proofs." Note: Your gallery will only be online for 30 days! After it expires, there is a $20/week fee to re-post your images. However, if there is an order made anytime, your gallery will be extended another 30 days from the date of that order.

Orders:

Most products will be ready 1-2 weeks after you order them. Your photographer will give you details once your order is made.
